

why let sinclair broadcast a nation-wide show against a presidential candidate right before the election?